Chapter 2 by aburton

Many thoughts, many words, many feelings that can be spoken.

Mixed up and swirling, how do you share what aches in the heart?

Drafts and speeches, so certain in the mind,

But when that moment comes to be brave, fear chokes the voice.

Not so certain anymore. shaky and hesitant.

nothing ever is what it is. shadings and colors mix up what we see.

fear and pain hides truth with doubt and shadows.

No amount of darkness can hide the light.

small and shining, flickering and burning.

hope swells and yearning flares.

it can be enough.

there is no darkness that can't be overcome.
